

What is a Community Foundation?

Community foundations are public non-profit organizations that exist to improve the quality of life in a geographical area.

We achieve this goal through community service initiatives, distributing grants and scholarships, and managing and investing donations.

Gift Opportunities

DIRECT GIFTS

Money, securities, or appreciated property may be transferred to the SCCEF. The donor receives a tax deduction based on the value at the time of transfer. The donor will not be subject to capital gains tax on any accrued appreciation.

WILL BEQUESTS

Donors may provide gifts through a will for a stated sum or a percentage of your estate.

DEFERRED GIFTS

Deferred gifts provide a lifetime income to the donor or designee(s). Upon death, the residue of the gift becomes the property of the SCCEF.

LIFE INSURANCE

By naming the SCCEF as irrevocable beneficiary of a life insurance policy, donors receive an immediate tax deduction. Premiums paid thereafter are deductible from income tax.

MEMORIALS

Gifts honouring individuals are an appropriate way of indicating one's care and concern.

Contact your tax advisor for more information.

Our Supporters

The South Cariboo Community Enhancement Foundation wishes to thank the following sponsors for their support and encouragement:

- ◆ Northern Development Initiative Trust
- ◆ Cariboo Regional District
- ◆ The District of 100 Mile House

Management & Purpose

All contributions and bequests received by the South Cariboo Community Enhancement Foundation are placed into a permanent endowment fund unless the donor specifies otherwise. The trust fund is managed by a skilled team of professionals.

Earnings from the fund are used to support projects and/or programs in the area as determined by the board of directors.

Grants

Non-profit organizations, community associations, and other civic groups may apply if they provide services in the South Cariboo.

Most grants are focused on specific areas of community development, community services, planning and coordination, education, and human services.

For more information on the granting process, please visit our website at:

Why Donate?

Your donation to the SCCEF provides you with a unique opportunity to support your community and share in shaping its future.

You may direct your gift to a specific fund in support of any special interests you may have or you can direct your gift to the area of greatest need.

Undesignated donations are placed in the Community Fund, which benefits a range of projects.

Gifts to the fund are tax deductible.
